Morrow Auto Mishap Hurts 2 Pedestrians

Two pedestrians were slightly injured in one of the two Morrow County accidents investigated over the weekend by Marion post state highway patrolmen.

Officers said the injury mishap occurred on Morrow County Rd. 21, about one-half mile east of the Delaware County line at 9:15 p.m. Saturday.

According to the report the eastbound auto driven by Everett J. Rawlins, 36, of Waldo, grazed two other Waldo residents who were standing at the edge of a narrow bridge after having just alighted from their car.

The injured were John H. Hamilton, 53, bruises of the left leg, and Elizabeth Waddell, 38, bruises of the right leg. Neither was treated, officers' said.

A Marengo man was charged with failure to yield the right of way and cited to appear before Mayor Ralph Porterfield of Mount Gilead today after his auto collided with another at the intersection of Rt. 229 and Morrow County Rd. 24, three miles east of the Delaware County line.

Patrolmen said the mishap occurred when the auto driven by Robert C. Curren, 18, of Marengo, pulled out of a private drive into the path of the oncoming auto on Rt. 229, driven by Ernest T. Neil, 72, of Apple Creek.

The two collided with considerable damage to both, officers noted. Time of the mishap was 10:40 a.m. Saturday.

Dog Survives Mishap

GALION — A young boy whose dog was hit by a car bearing Marion license plates Sunday, was able to move with his family from here to Stryker, O., this morning with a lighter heart. The dog, which was struck at Harding Way W. and Jefferson St. Sunday will live, according to a local veterinarian who examined the animal after the accident. The dog is owned by Michael McElhatten, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry McElhatten. The family moved from their home on Hardin Way W. to Stryker today.

CAT JOINS IN COFFEE BREAK. Tommy, king of a litter of six cats which make their home at the Pollak Steel Co., likes coffee — also ham salad sandwiches or whatever else might be picked up from a workman's lunchbasket. Promptly at 6 p.m. each day, Tommy and his cat companions hunt out John Steiner, a pipefitter working the 3 p.m. to 11 p.m. shift at the company, and demand their dinner. Here Tommy waits patiently for his evening pick-up.

Farmers in Colorado Borrow Funds To Fight Grasshoppers

KIT CARSON, Colo. (AP) — Determined farmers are hurling borrowed funds—money they hope to repay from future crops—into the battle against grasshoppers.

The discouraging prospect is that, unless the ravenous pest is destroyed within three weeks, the blight next year could be worse. Already it has developed into the greatest hopper plague in eastern Colorado since 1940. A five-year drought in the area was broken last year.

"When a man's got land of his own, he doesn't leave," says Emanuel Grauberger, with a tone of despair.

Grauberger, a leathery barley farmer, bought 310 acres northeast of Lamar just three weeks ago. Today it is shorn clean by millions of tiny grasshoppers that almost hid the barren ground itself.

With a tractor Grauberger is trying to beat the insects to death, a hopeless task.

Overhead, hordes of hoppers with newly sprouted wings dart from crop to crop. They have infested an estimated 1½ million acres in 28 counties. They are expected to lay next year's eggs within three weeks.

Nearly a million acres are under critical attack in three southeastern counties—Kiowa, Prowers and Cheyenne. In others the danger is considered much less because much spraying has been done.

Newsmen, taken on a 700-mile tour by state agriculture officials, saw the rangeland turned brown, lush alfalfa and other green crops stripped, more than 15 per cent of the multimillion - dollar wheat crop already gone.

The cost of spraying rangeland is being shared equally by farmers, state and federal governments. There is no federal aid for cropland.

Air Force Jet Tankers Beat Speed Record

NEW YORK (AP) — Two Air Force jet tankers beat the east-west speed record between London and New York City Sunday.

Alpha, the first of the two U.S. planes, flashed over Idlewild Airport at 2:20 p.m. It had made the 3,460 miles nonstop flight from London in 5 hours 51 minutes 24.8 seconds.

The plane landed minutes later at Floyd Bennett Field in Brooklyn.

Right behind Alpha streaked its sister ship Bravo, which took 5 hours 53 minutes 21 seconds. It landed at Westover Air Force Base, Mass., its home base.

Swept from the record books was British Capt. J. W. Hackett's mark of 7 hours 29 minutes established Aug. 23, 1955.

The U.S. planes, four-engine KC135s of the Strategic Air Command, set new marks of less than 5½ hours for the New York-London flight last Friday. A third jet tanker crashed just after takeoff Friday at Westover. Fifteen men were killed, six newsmen among them.

2 Leading GOP Campaigners Differ on Key Political Issues

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Nixon and Republican Sen. William F. Knowland apparently will have to campaign this fall from opposite sides of some major issues.

Knowland, who is running for governor of California, expects active help from the vice president. A Republican victory in California could have considerable bearing on Nixon's bid for the 1960 GOP presidential nomination.

But the vice president and the Republican Senate leader haven't always been able to see eye to eye.

Their latest division of opinion has cropped up in the controversy over presidential assistant Sherman Adams.

Nixon made it clear in a television broadcast he is standing behind President Eisenhower's decision to retain Adams. Knowland has said Adams would best serve the Republican party by retiring.

Nixon left the way open, however, to change his mind if the continuing investigation by a House subcommittee turns up "other proof which might indicate some activities which have not come to light to date."

The Democratic Digest, official organ of that party, tried to point up some of the differences between Knowland and Nixon in discussion of what it termed the vice president's dilemma in supporting the senator.

The magazine said Knowland was "running on a flagrantly reactionary, antilabor program." On the other hand, it said, Nixon had been "working for years to gain coloration as an internationalist and economic moderate. . ."

Persons not yet located are Miss Elizabeth Wilcox, Miss Flora Brewer, Lowell Barnhart, Miss Thelma Porter and Chalmer Ayers.

The reunion will be held Aug. 16 at the UAW-CIO Union Hall on Leader St.

Airport at Galion Is Hit by Burglars

GALION — A burglary at the Galion-Crestline Airport east of here was investigated Saturday by the Richland county sheriff.

Approximately $800 in checks, worthless to the thief or thieves, and $30 in cash was taken in a cash box removed from the drawer of a desk in the office. The theft was discovered by William Fischer about 9 a.m. Saturday when he went to the office. Mr. Fischer and his brother, Montford, operate the airport.

Montford Fischer said the checks would be worthless because they had been stamped "for deposit only." He said it was difficult to detect how entrance had been made. Either a door or window had been opened, he said.

Horse Disappears

REVERE, Mass. (AP)—Anthony E. Timpani said "I'm sure I'll be seeing 'Will See Ya' again. "Will See Ya," a 5-year-old gelding race horse owned by Timpani, disappeared from his stable at Suffolk Downs race track. A citizen reported he saw a man leading the thoroughbred down a Revere street about 3 a.m.

Kindergarten Enrollment in City Hits 588

Enrollment in the eight-week summer kindergarten program for preschool youngsters here climbed to 588 this morning, Cecil W. Gabler, co-director of the program, reported.

He said the figure represents an increase of 27 over the enrollment on the opening day of kindergarten a week ago. He expressed the belief that enrollment probably has leveled off by this time.

He noted, however, that vacations and children's sicknesses such as measles have prevented attendance from reaching the 606 figure of advance registrations.

Attendance by building this morning was: George Washington, 82; Glenwood, 43; Mark St., 93; N. Main St., 32; Oak St., 50; Oakland, 60; Olney Ave., 50; Pearl St., 72; Silver St., 48, and Vernon, 58.

The first group of youngsters to receive Safety Town training under this year's program will be graduated in ceremonies at the instruction site Tuesday morning. These are children at N. Main St. and Oak St. schools.

Mr. Gabler said children still may be enrolled in the kindergarten program. The school runs through Aug. 15 with sessions Monday through Friday mornings.

He issued a reminder that kindergarten classes will not meet Friday, July 4. The day will mark the only vacation period on the eight-week schedule.

Talent Contest Slated At Ada Farmers Picnic

ADA — Plans for the annual Farmers and Merchants Picnic in Ada were announced today by picnic officials. The picnic will be held Aug. 20 at the Ada Memorial Park.

A talent show will be held in conjunction with the picnic with performers seeking the grand prize of $35 and a trophy. Selection of the acts to compete in the picnic day contest will begin Sunday, July 20, at the Memorial Park bandshell at 2:30 p.m. The Sunday contests will be held each week until picnic time with at least three acts chosen each week to participate in the final contest.

Registrations, to be made before the show, can be filed with Irvin Vandemark at 208 N. Main St., Ada., or Ernie Routson, 741 N. Main St., Ada.

Council Forecasts 410 Holiday Traffic Deaths

CHICAGO (AP)—The National Safety Council today estimated 410 Americans may be killed in traffic accidents during the Fourth of July weekend.

If the toll goes that high, it will set a new record for a three-day observance of Independence Day. The high mark is 407, set in 1955.

The council also said there could be 12,000 disabling injuries during the 78-hour period — from 6 p.m. (local time) Thursday, July 3, to midnight Sunday, July 6.

It estimated 45 million cars will run up a total of 12 billion miles during the holiday period.

While predicting a heavy toll, the council stated: "But it doesn't have to be that way. A sure-fire antidote for extra holiday danger is extra holiday care—and it's available without cost to every driver."

The National City Bank announces Postronic another modern banking "first" in Marion

Postronic is the first electronic posting machine designed to eliminate countless possibilities of error and much of the time-consuming human effort formerly required in bank posting. National City has five of these amazing "machines with brains" built by National Cash Register.

There's a maze of wires and tubes and dials and wheels inside Postronic. They all work together to make the right entry on your account. First, the machine refuses to take an entry unless the ledger account number matches the number on the deposit or withdrawal. It then electronically selects the proper place to post the balance, picks up and verifies the old balance, determines whether balance is "good" or "overdrawn," verifies number of checks, detects accounts with "stop payments," and posts checks and deposits on the statement you'll receive at the end of the month.

You'd have to work in the bank for a while to know what this really means. It means less space, less work, less time required to check errors. It means faster service and more accurate statements for you.

Postronic is another modern banking "first" in Marion introduced by National City — the bank that led the way with drive-in banking, automatic teller machines, ThriftiCheck service, free Travel Bureau service and many other facilities and services. It is another step in the continuing program to make your banking better than ever at National City.

'Guns at Gettysburg' Describes Role of Artillery in Civil War

Associated Press Book Critic

THE GUNS AT GETTYSBURG. By Fairfax Downey. McKay.

Nearly 400 cannon took part in the tremendous barrage that preceded Pickett's charge at Gettysburg July 3, 1863. Such a cannonade would be peanuts today, but at the time it was the greatest concentration of fire - power ever known. Within the space of its thunderous two hours, artillery came of age.

"The Guns at Gettysburg" is unique, even in the vast field of Civil War literature. It is virtually the first full length book to be devoted to artillery and its achievements, and it opens a field of study that should bring new understanding of the Civil War as a vital era in the evolution of armed conflict.

Fairfax Downey, a retired lieutenant colonel of the U.S. Army Reserve and a former newspaperman, has established himself in previous works as a competent spokesman for the men who manned the guns. He revitalizes interest in Gettysburg with his findings on artillery's contributions to the battle.

Downey gives great credit to Maj. Gen. Henry J. Hunt, the Union chief of artillery, not only for his dispositions of the guns and his direction of the 129 batteries of the Union Army but for his canny handling of the train of reserve guns and ammunition, and for his foresight in providing it. He is less complimentary to the Confederate chiefs, contending there was a lack of coordination and support at critical times and serious oversight in failing to place guns to enfilade the Union line before Pickett marched out.

This is not a dry treatise. Downey takes the reader into the powder smoke where he can hear and smell the battle. His prose is stirring, his research has produced tales of many valorous deeds that embellish an exciting, significant book.

Bus Disappears

NEW YORK (AP)—If you spot a suspicious looking 41-passenger bus, report it to police.

The $10,000 vehicle disappeared Sunday from the Port Authority bus terminal parking lot on Manhattan's West Side.

It was loaded with enough fuel to take the driver 600 miles. Carlos Callier discovered the loss when he went to pick up the bus for a run to Greenville, N. Y.

The bus is red and gray, air-conditioned and has picture windows.

Midweek Vote Due on Alaska Statehood Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate enters a second week of debate on Alaskan statehood today with prospects of a vote by midweek to add the first star to the nation's flag since 1912.

With the Senate again meeting early, there was hope for a vote during the day on a constitutional point of order raised against the bill by Sen. James O. Eastland (D-Miss).

Backers of the House-passed bill, heartened by two test vote victories, were cofnident the admission measure would be on its way to the White House not later than Wednesday. They forecast passage by a 2-1 Senate margin.

Delegate E. L. (Bob) Bartlett (D-Alaska), traditionally cautious in his statehood forecasts, said he would not be surprised to find 70 senators lining up for the bill on the final roll call. He said he looked for action by Tuesday night.

Similar forecasts were made during the weekend by Senate backers of the bill which would authorize the first new state since New Mexico and Arizona joined the Union 46 years ago.

There was some indication that the active opposition, centered largely among Southern senators, might seek to stall the final vote until later in the week in hopes of forcing an amendment or casting a cloud over the bill's validity.

Guard's Removal Sought by Green

An order requesting the removal of a guard from the Marion Correctional Institution staff has been filed with the Civil Service Commission, Lamoyne Green, superintendent, announced today.

He said the guard, Otis W. Britton of 149 N. Grand Ave., faces dismissal after being suspended for 30 days on a charge of general neglect of duty and failing to offer any explanation for his conduct.

According to the superintendent, Britton was charged with sleeping on duty. His 30-day suspension went into effect June 21. Mr. Green sent him a communique on June 24 requesting him to answer for his conduct by Saturday noon.

Since no answer was received to the communique, Mr. Green said he has forwarded request for removal to the Civil Service Commission. Britton had been a guard at the local prison since Nov. 27, 1956.

Two Women Fined

Two Marion women were fined $25 and costs each when they pleaded guilty in Municipal Court today on charges of disorderly conduct.

Thelma Harris, 22, of 194 Cass Ave. was arrested at 2:15 a.m. Sunday on Hocking St. and Dorothy Wylie, 25, of 598 Grant St. was arrested at 12:10 a.m. Sunday on Hocking St.

Police Reports

Mrs. Owen Everly of 540 Blaine Ave. reported Sunday night that a diamond ring valued at $350 was stolen from a bedroom in her home. She said the theft occurred while she was at church. A purse and some money in a vase were not disturbed, she told police. She said she either forgot to lock the front door or someone entered the house through an unlocked window or door. There was no sign of a forced entry, she told police.

Marie Casperson of 900 Bennett St. reported Saturday that a tire was stolen from a car parked at her residence Friday night.

Theft of baseball equipment valued at $101 from his car was reported Saturday by Josh Milkoff of 781 Gill Ave. He said the car was parked in a number of different places Friday night and Saturday. Listed as stolen were eight bats, a catcher's mitt, a chest protector, four hats, eight baseballs, a catcher's mask and a green duffle bag.

—:—

James Starcher, 29, of 916 Gebhardt St. was bitten on the right knee by a stray dog Friday. The incident was reported Saturday to police by General Hospital employes.

City Collections To Be Speeded Up This Week

City sanitation department employes will be working extra hours today through Thursday in order to complete all Friday refuse and garbage pickups by the end of the work day on Thursday, Safety-Service Director Howard W. Travis said today.

There will be no pickups on Friday, July 4, so that the sanitation department employes may have the holiday off, along with other city employes.

He advised residents of the city to put their refuse out a little earlier so as not to be missed this week.

Can you afford their services?

When you or your wife, or one of your youngsters is ill, you want the best care possible regardless of expense.
These days, sickness or accident might readily require the services of one or even all of the people shown above . . . and the cost of their services can add up.
The wise way to protect against the financial hardships of sickness and accident is through properly selected insurance policies designed to meet today's needs.
That is why Metropolitan is introducing two new policies which aim to help meet the heavy costs of major illnesses or accidents and apply to many items of expense not ordinarily covered.
The first of these new policies is intended for the individual or family who already

5. Resident Physician
6. Surgeon
7. Family Physician
8. Roentgenologist (X-ray)
9. Nurse
owns one of the Metropolitan popular basic coverages for hospital and surgical expense.
It provides a larger maximum amount payable in case of major illness or accident, where costs may sometimes run into thousands of dollars.
It also provides the additional advantage of payments toward medical expenses incurred at home, including nurses' and doctors' visits.
The second new policy is designed for the individual or family not yet covered by one of the Metropolitan popular basic medical expense plans.
Like the first new policy, it is designed to help you obtain for your family the necessary medical care in those circumstances which are apt to impose a serious financial burden. It, too, provides payment towards "at home" medical expenses. The benefits provided by both these new Metropolitan plans are at a cost within the average budget.
There is an insurance expert near you—your Metropolitan Representative. Call him today. He will be glad to tell you in detail all the features of these two policies.

Something Else 'Bottomed Out'

Half a generation from now, population experts will be studying the 1958 collapse of the baby boom that was supposed to be the built-in cure-all for the problem of using up industrial production in this country.

The birth rate, reflecting a state of mind that became common last fall among potential parents, was down to 23.6 per thousand the first four months of 1958, compared with 26.1 in the first four months of 1957. The marriage rate has been slumping, too.

The full effect of unemployment and fear of unemployment will not be felt until 1959. Contrary to the curious instinct of survival that causes poverty-ridden people in many foreign countries to multiply in direct ratio to increases in adversity, Americans obey an instinct to slow down their multiplication rate in periods of adversity.

The lowest level in the birth rate ever reached was 16.4 per thousand in 1933 and 1936. The peak rate was 27.9 in 1947. Even the business slump of 1949, though concealed so successfully as a political talking point that it was quickly forgotten, showed up clearly in the 1950 birth rate.

If a baby boom were the recession cure it is cracked up to be by those who believe the most important element in human welfare is ever-increasing demand for available supplies, the most logical recession cure would be some government plan to persuade young married couples to have more children — immediately.

This would be at least as logical as the currently popular viewpoint that the recession could be routed by giving everybody more money to spend — immediately — with no thought of anything beyond immediate consequences.

Fortunately, most parents obey a deeper logic than that of superficial thinkers who seem to believe if the United States had a birthrate as high as India's its prosperity would be assured and that the modern cornucopia is a pay raise in shrinking dollars.

The Seed of a Doubt

What the United States needs, as every U.S. citizen knows, is a foreign policy that will hold the Communist conspiracy at bay.

What the United States has lacked, as every citizen knows, is a foreign policy that can hold the Communist conspiracy at bay.

Therefore, U.S. foreign policy has been under heavy criticism. Secretary of State Dulles, who holds an unusual amount of delegated responsibility from the White House in the making of foreign policy, has been under criticism.

But now there is the beginning of a doubt that the United States, or its allies, or Mr. Dulles or the foreign secretaries of other Western governments can be blamed.

The fault may be in Russian politics.

Instead of having a foreign policy that has kept the United States off balance since World War II and has puzzled the Western World, the Soviet Union may have made this impression by lack of a foreign policy.

It may have perplexed and confounded the diplomats of the Western nations in precisely the same way that an erratic opponent with no plan of attack and no method of precedure puzzles a tennis player, for example.

The tennis player who knows what he wants to do and how to do it simply cannot play a game of tennis with an opponent who has no consistency of purpose or method.

The Kremlin, which has given the impression of diabolical cunning, actually may have been able to do so because it has lacked any genuine purpose of plan, other than hostility to all the purposes and plans of its counterparts in other governments.

The hostility it has generated may have been as planless as the hostility that would be generated by a bull in a china shop, a trapped bat zooming blindly in a living room, or a stray elephant in a flower garden.

With no continuity of purpose and no provision for cushioning its foreign policy from the hammer blows and sickle slashes of its own political bickering, the Kremlin may have been relying on suspicion and irreconcilability to conceal the absence of a foreign policy.

This could account for the bafflement that Western diplomats have been plagued by in their efforts to maintain working relationships with the Russian government. It could account for the on-again-off-again nature of Russian foreign relations.

There is the seed of a doubt — a seed that was planted by Franklin D. Roosevelt, who was not sure that Joseph Stalin was diplomatically "housebroken" but thought he could housebreak him at Yalta.

Sweet Are the Uses of Adversity

James R. Hoffa's acquittal on charges of wire-tapping has cleared up the charges standing against him in 1957. He previously had been acquitted on a charge of bribery to get possession of secret documents of the Senate.

If ever a man had reason to muse that the uses of adversity can be sweet, the president of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters has the best of reasons. Since late last September, he has jumped from ninth vice president of his union to president, successfully survived expulsion of the union from AFL-CIO, averted an epidemic of jurisdictional disputes, fended off the curiosity of the McClellan investigators, extricated himself from his legal entanglements and put himself into a position to dominate the union interests of the nation, despite opposition from rivals who so far have been unable to challenge him successfully.

His obvious ambition, which is to bring under the control of his union "everything that moves," is being furthered by alliances with new allies and truces in long-standing disputes with old allies. The union's expulsion from AFL-CIO brought a net annual saving of at least $800,000 in dues and assessments. Its leader's new identity as the unassailable leader of the opposition is causing other dissidents to gravitate to him as the alternative to the George Meany-Walter Reuther leadership of AFL-CIO.

Dave Beck is gone. Frank Brewster is gone. James R. Hoffa remains, true to the prediction that has been made about him ever since he became boss of the Central Conference of Teamsters in 1953 — that he would become the strongest individual force in unionism if he lived long enough. Still in his mid-40s, he now has reached the top.

The Law Is the Law Is the Law

It is unlikely the case of Dr. P. Scott Whiteleather vs. the U.S. Department of Agriculture will go ringing down through the decades as a key precedent in jurisprudence. But the issue on which the Minerva physician's difference of opinion with USDA reached Federal Court should go ringing down as some kind of a precedent.

In the ruling by Federal Judge Paul Jones of Cleveland, the issue was whether the USDA agents gave proper notice to the doctor they were going to show up at such and such a time to measure his wheat acreage. Having satisfied himself that proper notice was given, Judge Jones ruled against the defendant Whiteleather — and that was that.

Moreover, the defendant Whiteleather thereupon acknowledged what was what, said he would let the agents measure his wheat acreage and hereafter confine his opposition to what he thinks is unreasonable regimentation and attempts to have the law changed. It goes without saying that no attempt he will make will get more than a fraction of the attention of the altercation that landed him in court. Thousands of small farmers who could not afford to go through the legal mill in defense of a principle regarded him as a champion fighting in their behalf.

There isn't a ghost of a chance that wheat-growing allotments ever will be rigged or administered in favor of little growers like those in Ohio as long as the big growers in the Grain Belt run the show. There was a ghost of a chance, however, that Dr. Whiteleather might find a legal gimmick to protect little growers. It was worth the effort. But the law is the law is the law. If the measurer gives proper notice, he can measure acreage until his measuring wheel runs out of grease, which it just might do some day.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

The boost in postage stamp prices Aug. 1 is swinging business houses into plans for economizing on mail. The general public will go easier with correspondence, too, it is expected.

The revolt against the boost may hit love letters. Romeo who used to write his Juliet an epistle every other day may now write the same number per week but send them in one envelope.

Sample: My darling: I could write you daily but mailing is another matter. Sweetheart, you fill my dreams. But leave us not forget that Summerfield fills my nightmares.

A few pennies shouldn't make much difference in love, perhaps, but I just don't like the idea of the post office throwing a roadblock in front of Cupid.

WHILE THE COST of a 3-cent stamp has gone only to 4, we must put up a battle, my sweet, against inflation sideswiping romance.

I don't want to seem cheap, honey. You are worth 4 cents. I would even go to a nickel for you. (What am I saying! I don't really mean just that. Even if Congress made stamps 6 cents instead of 4 the extra 2 cents would not dim my love for you.)

I am sore at the postal system generally and hate to be made a party to Mr. Summerfield's campaign to discourage love in a country which has always had the fullest help from the Post Office Department.

Look at the situation. Even if I did not love you so dearly and would only correspond with you by postcard, I would get licked there, too, on account of postcards have also joined in the high cost of LOVING.

IN YOUR LAST NOTE you asked if I had stopped writing that other girl. Relax. She lives so far away it takes airmail, and that's gone up too. Speaking of postcards I expect to get a vacation soon and if I do not send you as many souvenir postals as before you will understand why, unless Summerfield puts only a small picture of the firemen's monument on them and leaves room for as many words as I can get into a regular letter. All my love, give or take a little off for economy. Toots.

Tit-for-Tat Diplomacy

By Jay G. Hayden

Something brand new in the game of tit-for-tat Soviet Russia and the Western Allies long have been playing, is the stoning and ink-bathing of foreign Embassies in Moscow in retaliation for like attacks on Communist establishments in protest against execution of Imre Nagy.

Following mob violence against Danish and West German Embassies in the Russian capital, openly in retort for pro-Nagy uprisings in Copenhagen and Bonn, a Red mob went through the motions of besieging the 10-story U.S. official residence.

As with the Danish and German assaults, the anti-American attack was preceded by charges that a march by Hungarian refugees against the Soviet consulate in New York was deliberately fomented by the U.S. government and winked at by New York police.

BUT NOTABLY, not once in their tirades against Danes, Germans or Americans did the Russians so much as mention the name of Nagy or any other of the Hungarians put to death.

The pronouncements did speak of a renewal of attacks upon "Soviet and Hungarian diplomats and cracking down on Communists and progressives, in Western capitals — but no word about the long delayed execution of Hungarian patriots.

Because the propaganda approach to attack on the American Embassy so perfectly followed the pattern of the preceding moves against Danes and Germans, U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson was fully prepared. Families of attaches, living on the lower floors, were moved upstairs and the protective force of eight Marines was waiting at the single entrance to the Embassy compound, fully armed.

Actually, as it appears, the anti-American demonstration was a pale shadow, compared with the attacks on Danes and Germans. Whereas clubs were wielded and stones and bottles of ink were hurled in the earlier disturbances, the 1,000 or so marching around the American Embassy only shook their fists and shouted dirty epithets.

A Russian police force of 150, the news accounts said easily kept the crowd under control, athough making no visible effort to disperse it.

Fortunately from the standpoint of history, both the anti-Russia demonstration in Bonn and the anti-German demonstration in Moscow were televised and shown to American viewers.

The contrast must have been apparent to all. The Hungarian protestants in the German capital clearly were in dead earnest and the German police were decidedly roughed up before gaining order.

THE MOSCOW demonstraters marched, shouted and threw their stones and ink bottles all right but with scant symptom of fanaticism. And the Russian police, in white uniforms, circulating in midst of the crowd, remained wholly immaculate. If a truncheon was lifted, a head bloodied, or even a toe stepped on, the cameramen missed it.

The business of diplomacy by retaliation vis-a-vis Russia and the West had its start when, in March, 1952, the U.S., Britain, Canada, France, Italy and the Netherlands jointly and formally restricted Russian Embassy personnel to the same range of travel allowed their representatives in Moscow.

In the United States 239 Soviet attaches were limited to a 25-mile radius of Washington or New York, except as they asked and were given permission to make specific trips elsewhere.

That pattern was quickly extended to retaliatory discharge of diplomats. It is accepted practice that whenever Russia declares a Western official persona non grata, or vice versa, a comparable person, whether ambassador or busboy, is sent packing the other way.

In that same model was a U.S.-Soviet pact last January, providing for a variety of cultural, economic and sports exchanges.

A sample of the working of that plan was provided last week when two Soviet engineers were barred by the State Department from visiting the Du Pont and other large industrial plants near Philadelphia and shunted off to much less important establishments.

The reason given for this exclusion was that Russia has balked at admission of Americans to industries comparable with those their delegates wanted to inspect.

NEW YORK — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't read his mail:

Soviet Censorship

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON — This gives you a pretty good idea of Soviet censorship: of the kind of information kept by the Kremlin from the Soviet people and from the rest of the world.

What follows is taken from a talk made by Andrew H. Berding, assistant secretary of state for public affairs. It's the best round-up on the question this writer has seen. The words are all Berding's:

Crime and statistics on crime and on the prison population are closely guarded secrets. Most newsworthy arrests are not reported. Trials in process are generally not printed.

DISASTERS AND accidents are not reported unless they involve casualties to foreigners. No information is released on the sessions of the Communist Party Presidium, even the fact a meeting has been held.

Meetings of the Central Committee (of the Communist party) are announced only after they have been held, and no information is published on their deliberations. The process of reaching major policy decisions is kept from the public.

Such decisions are announced by fiat and, of course, with no hint of opposing views.

Information on the reasons for major personnel appointments or dismissals is often not released. The dismissal of the head of the Soviet government, Premier Bulganin, was announced simply with the statement that Nikita Khrushchev had taken over. Not a word was said as to why Bulganin was dismissed or what he would do.

NO MEANINGFUL statistics on the breakdown of the Soviet population by social groups and nationalities have been published for 19 years.

Civil disorders, such as those at the Vorkuta slave labor camp and at Norisilk in 1953 and at Tiflis in 1956 are never reported. Other expressions of dissatisfaction by the populace are generally not reported.

On the military side, the Soviets have made only 12 announcements of nuclear tests, although we know they have conducted many more. The Soviets release no data on the numerical strength of their armed forces, the number of troops stationed abroad, the number of military personnel inducted or released from active service per year, and the number of warships, planes and other equipment in use.

ALTHOUGH THE Soviet government announced plans for troop reductions allegedly totaling 2,140,000 in 1955 and 1957, it has not revealed the extent to which these affected total force levels nor do we know if they were ever actually carried out.

On the economic side, comprehensive figures on the personal income and consumption patterns of the Soviet populace have not been released for years. The Soviet republic publishes no absolute production figures for grain and most other agricultural products. They publish no statistics on the production of nonferrous metals, diamonds, asbestos, magnesite, pyrite, petroleum derivatives, merchant ships, civil aircraft, military equipment and most chemicals.

Wholesale industrial prices, agricultural procurement prices, and comprehensive figures on retail prices are not published. On the international side major statements by Western governments and political leaders are often ignored or distorted.

ACCOUNTS OF UNITED Nations proceedings are warped beyond recognition. Accurate information on foreign living standards is carefully kept from the Soviet populace. Information on economic and social progress in Western countries is almost invariably suppressed.

Reductions in military strength by the Western powers are not reported. Accurate information on Western political institutions is not revealed.

Censorship of dispatches by Americans and other foreign correspondents stationed in Moscow is constant and extensive. In recent weeks Soviet censorship of foreign correspondents' dispatches from Moscow has become increasingly severe.

Purely Personal

By Truman Twill

The shocked amazement of the American people whenever they are reminded that business is done in Washington the same way it is done in Peoria is hard to understand. How do they really think business is done in Washington, by electronic computers?

Every time I see our wide-open-spaces pooches excavating a groundhog or swimming in the creek, I remember a New York pooch that has 15 leashes, including a gold one for parties—and — realize how silly human vanity can be.

If it's all the same to the international politicos trying to build up Imre Nagy as a martyr because the Communists killed him for guessing wrong about the Hungarian revolt, I'll continue to remember that Nagy, himself, was a Communist and shouldn't have been surprised at his "treatment."

It is easy to get the impression there are as many Republicans thirsting for Sherman Adams' official blood as Democrats, which is understandable. It has been part of his job to turn down thousands of Republicans seeking jobs from the Eisenhower administration.

Is there any everyday embarrassment greater than that of wondering how long to wait before crashing a jammed traffic signal —with half a dozen hornblowers blasting from behind—and another baffled driver headed in the opposite direction, waiting for you to make the first move?

It seems to me that if anyone wants to know the nature of the times, he must learn everything there is to know about the circumstances that finally made it possible for the cherished institution of the big circus to maintain its institutional stature. The whole story is right there — unrealistic wages, expensive transportation, punitive fees and crushing taxation.

It is news when someone beats the Yankees but commonplace when the Yankees beat someone else, which has given rise to the misconception that the Yankees always are being beaten by someone—and that concludes today's pithy observation on what's news and what's not.

If the Rockefeller Brothers Fund never does anything else, it has blasted the fallacies that money is all we need to improve the educational system and that academic aptitude is the indispensable basis for learning. The fact is that this country owes most of its accomplishments to relatively dull people who went to dumpy schools.

If I were a policeman hurt in a riot caused by Hungarians trying to smash the windows in a Soviet outpost in New York City, I would put in a claim for double indemnity for injury incurred outside what should be the line of duty for any American law enforcement officer.

News of Other Years

40 YEARS AGO — Two more air attempts by the Germans to raid Paris failed before the planes could reach the city.

Bishop Thomas Bowman, doctor of divinity of Allentown, Pa., the oldest Protestant bishop in the United States in point of service, delivered the Sunday morning sermon at the Calvary Evangelical United Brethren Church. The 82-year-old Bishop Bowman had been bishop for 43 years.

Guest speaker at the St. Paul's Episcopal Church that Sunday was Archdeacon Eugene Durrell of Reading, Pa.

The Marion Mausoleum was dedicated in special ceremonies held at its site east of Marion. The main address was made by the Hon. Clinton R. Cole of Findlay.

Special memorial services were held by Canby Temple 152, Pythian Sisters in the Epworth Methodist Church.

20 YEARS AGO — Arthur W. Baker, a former Marion man, was named superintendent of the Kent division of the Erie Railroad.

City council voted to place a proposal for a $295,000 city hall and auditorium on the August primary ballots during a special meeting.

Miss Marilyn Meseke, 21, of 240 S. Prospect St., slept peacefully —tired, but happy, after winning the Miss Ohio title for 1938 in a Cleveland contest. The blond Miss Meseke was five feet, seven inches tall and weighed 129 pounds.

An investigation was being conducted after a $500 fireworks stand at Main St. and Copeland Ave. was destroyed by fire in a premature Fourth of July fireworks display.

10 YEARS AGO — Berlin's city government drafted an appeal for the United Nations to intervene in the food crisis caused by Russia's blockade of the city's land transport lifelines.

L. Otis Porter, head of the Marion Community Foundation, was named to head the foundation's annual drive for funds.

Marion's request for rerouting two state highways through the business district in order to relieve traffic congestion was denied by the state highway department.

Flower Programs and Sam Pepys

LONDON

The advertiser here is forbidden by law from having any control over program content and so far the advertiser, the broadcaster and the public have found this arrangement singularly restful.

JOHN CROSBY

The advertiser doesn't have to worry about the ups and downs of the program since there is nothing he can do about it anyway. Program people and stars never have exchanged a word, cross or otherwise, with advertisers. Heaven knows how long this halcyon situation will last.

The commercial programmers dump two and a half minutes of commercial into every half hour of program. Theoretically, one advertiser could take the whole two and half minutes—but none does, because it's too expensive.

MOST COMMERCIALS run, it seems to me, 15 or 20 seconds and are, to my jaded American ears, marvels of brevity and modesty. I was particularly taken with one where one man hands another a biscuit and says: "What do you think of that biscuit."

The other guy tastes and says: "Good!" Not, you'll notice: "There is a biscuit that is lighter, dryer and more full-bodied"—but simply "good!"

Frankly, I never thought any advertiser or agency would put up with this form of restraint, but here they are not only putting up with it, they are thriving on it.

Buying habits which used to take years, if not decades, to change can be shifted about in a matter of weeks because of television—the public is happily snapping up frozen vegetables and other newfangled products with tremendous speed.

WITH FIVE or six different products lumped together in one two-and-a-half-minute bunch, I don't know how the public can remember brand names—or even if it's a cigarette that's been advertised. But it does.

As in our own country, the soap opera is one of the more enduring monuments of broadcasting.

"Emergency Ward 10" is one of the most popular programs in all England and you ought to be able pretty well to write the script from that title. It is, of course, set in a hospital.

The only time I looked, a handsome chap was crumbling under a mysterious malady that couldn't be diagnosed. His selfish mother wanted him to come home; his sweetheart wrung her hands helplessly; and the doctor was a saint, as all doctors are in all soap operas everywhere.

THE BRITISH have soaps (or serials, if we are to be honest) that are a little unusual.

One was "The Diary of Samuel Pepys," which ran for 14 installments on the BBC and was frightfully authentic. It was full of minutes, 17th-century parlor games, dukes and duchesses and the sort of exchanges of dialog that start: "Why, Nell Gwynn! What brings you here?" It was very well acted and, I thought, very good.

At the opposite pole is "Trouble at Northbrook," which is billed as the viewers' own serial. The viewers are invited to write this one themselves. It's about schoolboys at a mythical school called Northbrook and appeals to teen-agers; the plots which the teen-age viewers send in are incredibly awful.

In one I saw, three schoolboys catch a school teacher stealing the school cup.

"Well, I guess you've learned your lesson," the school teacher is admonished and then let loose in a triumph of magnanimity.

THOSE OF YOU who can't understand the attraction of the Dick Clark show where teen-age kids simply dance to rock 'n' roll music, will be outraged to hear that the English have a program that's mighty similar.

It's called "Six-Five Special" and it's largely comprised of kids dancing. However, rock 'n' roll is fading fast here and the day I watched the kids were dancing to Dixieland jazz, which is a vast improvement over rock 'n' roll.

Several of the dancers were titled aristocrats and the guy on the drums was an earl, a teen-age one.

One of Britain's most famed programs is "The Brains Trust," which is not what it was years ago.

I watched the Trust, which included Sir Julian Huxley and Sir John Wolfenden, as they scratched their distinguished skulls over the question: "Since most rascals are highly social, are rascals ever solitary people?"

A nice question, but the talk was dull.

British sportscasters, I notice, are much more editorial than ours. Where our lads ignore any malfeasance on the parts of referees and pretend they haven't happened, the British announcers are quite likely to denounce them or to announce that a shot in tennis is quite badly executed. (In America, all shots are at very least "a good try.")

Gardening is a very serious business in England. There are still gardening programs on TV where men—not women discuss the raising of flowers with the gravity Americans reserve for politics or Brigitte Bardot.

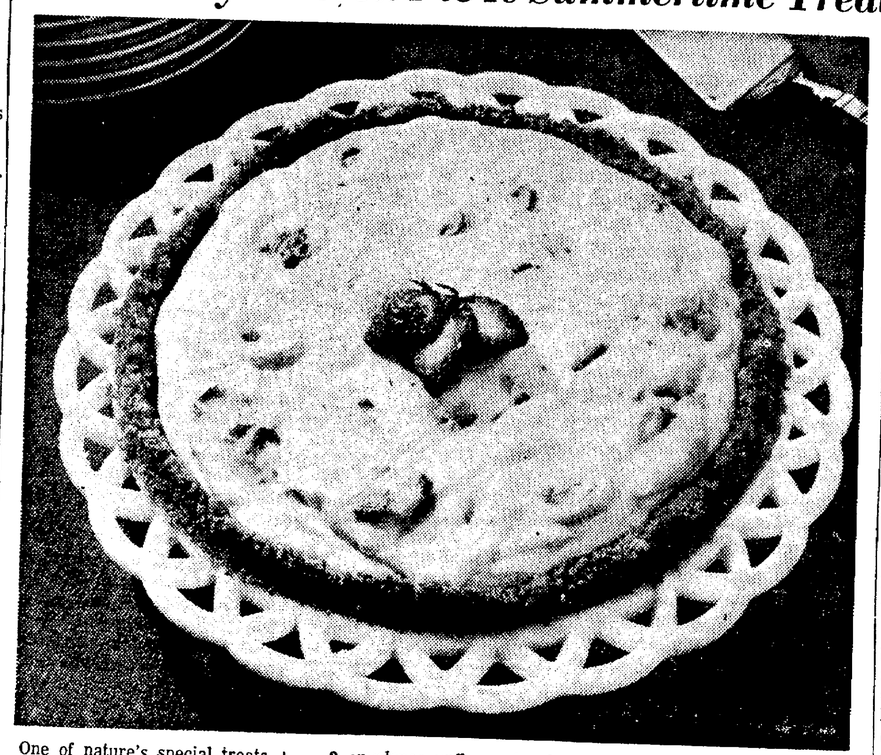
Strawberry Chiffon Pie Is Summertime Treat



One of nature's special treats, fresh ripe strawberries, are becoming more plentiful now that warm weather is here. This luscious red fruit may be served in so many delicious ways, that a favorite is hard to pick.

A light-as-air Strawberry Chiffon Pie is certainly among the top winners. The filling of this pie is rich with milk and cream, delicately flavored with almond, and then loaded with juicy fresh berries.

A buttery graham cracker crust compliments the creamy filling. This is a dessert fit for the most special occasion.

Strawberry Chiffon Pie

¾ cup sugar
2 cups sliced fresh strawberries
2 envelopes unflavored gelatine
2 cups milk
2 teaspoons cornstarch
¼ teaspoon salt
2 eggs, separated
¼ teaspoon almond extract
½ teaspoon vanilla extract
½ cup heavy cream
6 whole strawberries

Add ¼ cup sugar to sliced berries and let stand. Soften gelatine in ½ cup milk for five minutes. Meanwhile, combine ¼ cup sugar, cornstarch and salt in top of double boiler; stir in remaining milk and cook over boiling water, stirring constantly until slightly thick. Beag egg yolk; add hot milk mixture gradually. Return to double boiler and cook, stirring constantly until mixture coats spoon. Blend in gelatine and cool. Add extracts and chill slightly. Beat egg whites stiff; beat in remaining ¼ cup sugar. Whip cream stiff. Fold egg whites, whipped cream and sliced berries into custard. Pour into shell and chill several hours. Garnish with whole berries and additional whipped cream, if desired. Makes 6 servings.

Graham Cracker Crumb Shell

1 1-3 cups graham cracker crumbs
1-3 cup light brown sugar
½ teaspoon cinnamon
1-3 cup melted butter

Mix ingredients together well and press into 9 inch pie plate. Chill in refrigerator.

Ohio-Founded Veteran Group Seeks To Get Federal Charter

WASHINGTON (AP)—An Ohio-founded veterans organization claimed important support in the Senate today for its immediate objective of obtaining a federal charter.

Once that is accomplished, the group—Veterans of World War I—plan to pursue its avowed long range goal: urging Congress to enact $100 monthly pensions for every veteran of World War I.

National Adjutant Charles Hindley, an ex-Ohioan, told a reporter that this is the group's goal and that the charter has to come first before its appeals to Congress can be really effective.

"Unless you have a charter," he explained, "the (congressional) committees won't listen to you."

So far, the veterans have done well. A bill to give them a charter passed the House recently, 389 to 2.

Hindley said things look good in the Senate, too. He said such senators as Democrats Wayne Morse and Richard Neuberger of Oregon and Joseph O'Mahoney of Wyoming are in favor of the legislation for a charter.

One of the two men in the House to oppose the bill, Chairman Olin Teague (D-Tex) of the Veterans Affairs Committee, claimed the pension the new veterans group wants would wreck the veterans program.

As Hindley recalled it, the Veterans of World War I was founded in Cleveland in 1949 by a man named Albert Weber. Since then, he said, the organization has grown to 100,000 members in 37 states.

Hindley himself has an Ohio background.

Shortly after World War I he played shortstop a few months for the old Toledo Mudhens. After World War II, he was an investigator for the Justice Department in Cleveland, Lima, Steubenville and Cincinnati.

His own family, he said, was originally from New Philadelphia, Ohio, in Tuscarawas County. He said the county has an extremely active "barricks"—the World War I veteran word for post.

New Priest Is Assigned To Parish in Crestline

CRESTLINE — The Rev. Robert Blank has begun his new duties here as assistaant pastor at St. Joseph Catholic Church. He was assigned to the post by Bishop George B. Rehring of Toledo.

The Rev. Fr. Blank was ordained in 1942. Prior to his present assignment, he held posts at St. Thomas Aquinas, Good Shepherd, Immaculate Conception and St. Michael parishes in Toledo, and at Saints Peter and Paul in Sandusky, and had been a teacher at Toledo Central Catholic High School.

He served with the U.S. Army as a chaplain from 1945 to 1947 with service in the Philippine Islands and in Japan. He is a native of Toledo and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blank, still reside there.

Six Persons Injured in Three Delaware Area Auto Crashes

DELAWARE — Six persons sustained minor injuries in three weekend accidents reported today by state highway patrolmen of the Delaware post.

A Delaware man escaped injury when he was thrown from an auto on Rt. 23 nine miles south of Delaware at 6:15 p.m. Sunday.

Patrolmen said Donald Gilley, 24, was hurled onto the pavement. He was a passenger in a northbound auto driven by Bruce L. Hagaman, 23, of Delaware.

According to the report the mishap occurred when another northbound car, driven by Gaynell L. Smith, 31, of Columbus, attempted a turn into the Playhouse-on-the-Green near Worthington and the oncoming Hagaman auto struck it in the rear end.

Both Cars Damaged

Both vehicles were considerably damaged. Patrolmen said Hagaman sustained the only injury in the mishap, lacerations of the face and knees. He was charged with failure to stop within assured clear distance.

Three persons were injured in a Rt. 61 accident four miles north of Sunbury at 1:20 p.m. Sunday, patrolmen said. The mishap occurred when a southbound car driven by John F. Davis, 30, of Mansfield swerved off the highway to avoid colliding with another car which pulled out in front of it as the Davis car also was attempting to pass traffic, officers said.

Skidding off the east side of the road, the Davis car struck a concrete abutment and came to rest in a ditch.

Injured passengers in the auto were Dorothy D. Davis, 35, and John E. Davis, 30, both of Mansfield, lacerations of the body, and George L. Jackson, 31, of San Bernadino, Calif., bruised eye and cheek. Patrolmen said all three required treatment.

Collide Near Delaware

Two cars were damaged Saturday at 9:15 p.m. when they collided about one mile south of Delaware on Rt. 23.

Vehicles involved were driven by Svetko Yovanoff, 65, and Waldemar Haase, 36, both of Columbus, patrolmen said.

According to the report the Haase auto struck the back end of the Yovanoff car which was slowed for traffic in front of it.

Wilma Yovanoff, 63, of Columbus, a passenger in the Yovanoff car, and Kathleen Haase, 33, of Columbus, a passenger in the Haase auto, both received minor injuries.

Patrolman said considerable damage was done to the Haase auto and minor damage to the Yovanoff vehicle.

Stolen Vehicle Found

A station wagon reported stolen last Tuesday from Charles B. Diehl of Siam in Seneca County was recovered by sheriff's deputies Sunday night on State Rt. 98 north of Waldo. Deputies said they were called at about 6:25 p.m. by a woman who told them the vehicle apparently had been abandoned.

Deputies also received a report Sunday that a fishing rod and reel valued at $20 was stolen from Edward Randall of 416 Milburn Ave. in the vicinity of Evans Quarry north of Marion. Mr. Randall told deputies two young boys took the equipment while he was arranging his tackle box in his car.

tune the car tune the body

If you live by the car dealer's book, you get a tune-up twice a year. And if you get by for less than $30 a crack, you're lucky. Sixty dollars a year is more than you spend for medicine and not much less than your annual doctor bill.

Uncle Sam Ending Fiscal Year With Hefty National Deficit

Predictions For '59 See Boost in Debt

Recession, Military Spending May Raise Figure to $11 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP)—For Uncle Sam, tonight is New Year's Eve. He won't be celebrating, though, because the new fiscal year will carry him deeper into debt than ever before.

Red ink spending caused by the business recession and the Soviet scientific-military menace threatens a fiscal 1959 deficit of about 11 billion dollars — possibly closer to 12 billion. That is more than at any time since World War II.

To Top 1955 High

The national debt is sure to push past its December 1955 record high of $280,821,000,000.

The legal debt limit now is 280 billion dollars. The Eisenhower administration soon will ask Congress to boost that ceiling, probably by about 10 billion dollars.

The 1958 bookkeeping year which ends today also will be marred by a hefty deficit. Officials predict spending will top income by 2¾ billion to 3-billion dollars.

The exact size of the 1958 deficit, which comes after two straight years of balanced budgets, won't be known for a couple of weeks.

Near $276 Billion

Latest figures, as of the middle of last week, showed the national debt at close to 276 billion dollars The government then had a cash balance of about 10 billion dollars, a seasonal bulge that will be reduced speedily.

Secretary of the Treasury Anderson is known to feel the government should always have enough cash available to pay its expenses for two or three weeks. At the present spending rate, that means a total of 3 to 4½ billion dollars.

In January, President Eisenhower predicted a balanced budget for fiscal 1959 and a deficit of only 400 million dollars for '958.

Revenues for fiscal 1958 are expected to fall about 2½ billion dollars shy of Eisenhower's January estimate of $72,400,000,000. Spending will run close to his prediction of $72,800,000,000.

For fiscal 1959, officials are now talking of outlays in the neighborhood of 80 billion dollars and revenue below 70 billion.

Man, 38, Shot After Quarrel On Use of Car

A 38-year-old Marion man, shot in the right hip with a 16-gauge shotgun Saturday during a family argument, is reported in "fairly good" condition today in General Hospital.

Sheriff Glenn Obenour said John M. Crisswell, who lives on Prospect Township Rd. 124 east of Prospect, apparently was shot while trying to disarm his wife, Marilyn, during an argument over use of the family car.

The shooting was reported to the sheriff late Saturday morning by Earl E. Crisswell, the victim's son by a previous marriage.

Sheriff Obenour said Mrs. Crisswell admitted the shooting when questioned at the jail. The woman and young Crisswell were released after interrogation on the advice of Prosecutor Robert O. Stout, the sheriff said. Mr. Stout said this morning he intends to question Mr. Crisswell to hear his version of the shooting and to determine whether charges will be preferred.

Basis for the argument, according to the sheriff, was a Common Pleas Court order giving Mrs. Crisswell use of the car each weekend. Mrs. Crisswell filed suit for divorce last May.

The sheriff said Mr. Crisswell refused to let his wife use the car during the weekend and that the couple argued after he appeared at the residence Saturday to check on some sows that were scheduled to farrow.

Sheriff Obenour said he found Mr. Crisswell lying face down in the driveway a few feet from the back porch of the home. The victim was shot at close range high on the front side of his hip the sheriff said. He was rushed to the hospital in a Boyd ambulance.

The sheriff quoted Mrs. Crisswell as saying her husband struck her during the argument and that she grabbed the shotgun in an attempt to scare him. Mrs. Crisswell told the sheriff the gun discharged during a struggle as her husband attempted to disarm her.

CROWD PLEASER. The Mount Vernon Fife and Drum Corps was one of the units in the Delaware Sesquicentennial Parade Saturday which earned the plaudits of the crowd for its performance. The corps, which has won several national awards in recent years, put on a snappy performance. Members wear Civil War dress uniforms.

11 Accidents Reported

Four Hurt in Weekend Mishaps in City, County

Two Marion youngsters and a LaRue boy sustained injuries in two of the five county accidents investigated over the weekend by state patrolmen of the Marion post. City police reported six accidents and one injury.

Officers said the mishap injuring two youngsters occurred on County Rd. 175 just north of the city corporation limits at 11:05 a.m. Sunday when a car driven by Bessie Davis, 35, of 562 Bartram Ave. struck a fence and telephone pole.

According to the report the northbound vehicle traveling on Bartram Ave. failed to stop at the intersection with the county road and crossing it, struck the two obstacles. The damaged fence was owned by Marion Broadcasting Co., patrolmen said.

INJURED WERE Robert Davis, 6, bruised hip, and Walter Davis, 8, injured toe. Neither boy was treated at the time, patrolmen said. The driver was charged with failure to have a license.

James Derringer, 11, of LaRue was admitted to San Antonio Hospital in Kenton early Saturday after he was knocked from his bicycle by a westbound auto on Market St. in LaRue. The auto was driven by William VanHouten, 67, of 432 Lee St., patrolmen said.

They reported the youth had swerved his bicycle to the left and cut across the street into the path of the VanHouten auto.

The boy was taken to the hospital in a Ford ambulance from LaRue. His bike was considerably damaged in the 9:45 a.m. mishap. The youth sustained lacerations and contusions of the face and multiple contusions of the body.

Robert D. Yake, 25, of Waldo was charged with failure to stop within assured clear distance after a mishap on Rt. 23, just south of Marion at 12:40 p.m. Saturday, patrolmen reported.

They said the southbound Yake auto struck the back end of an auto driven by Lanier E. Wood, 41, of 855 Daffodil Dr., who had slowed to make a turn. Both cars were only slightly damaged.

Two cars driven by Marion men were only slightly damaged in another accident which occurred Saturday at 10:15 p.m. on Rt. 30-S, about one mile east of Marion.

Patrolmen said the eastbound auto driven by Lawrence K. Crampton, 19, of 503 Smith St., struck a car in front of it, driven by Harold E. Holt, 20, of 465 Mound St. Crampton was arrested on a charge of failure to stop within assured clear distance.

According to the report the northbound combination, driven by Luther D. Bradley, 48, of Ashland, Ky., went left of center and its trailer wheels struck the southbound auto driven by Glenn E. Shrader, 25, of 205 E. Fairground St. Bradley was charged with driving left of center.

Bicyclist Injured

A bicyclist was injured in one of six traffic accidents investigated in the city over the weekend.

Jack Lewis, 12, of 144 Sharpless Ct. suffered a cut on the head when he struck the door of a parked automobile which had been opened into the path of his bicycle. The owner of the car was V. E. Reams of 350 Fairview Ave., police said.

The accident happened while the boy was riding northbound in the 100 block of N. Main St. at 10:38 a.m. Saturday.

Mr. Reams took the boy to a doctor's office for treatment.

A five-year-old bicyclist escaped injury in a collision with an automobile at Clinton and Jackson streets at 6:34 p.m. Sunday.

He was Robert Armstrong of 265 Brentwood Dr. Driver of the car was N. D. Samples, 34, of 793 Congress St., police said.

A car driven by W. E. Foley, 36, of 781½ W. Center St. struck a parked car in the 700 block of W. Center St. at 12:27 p.m. Sunday.

Owner of the parked car was H. R. Scott of 773 W. Center St.

A collision at Delaware Ave. and E. Walnut St. at 11:50 a.m. Sunday involved cars driven by E. P. Seiter, 50, of 311 Powhattan St., and G. W. Dalton Jr., 22, of 611 Windsor St.

Each of the other two accidents in the city caused less than $100 total damage, police estimated.

Marine Recruiter

A new recruiter has been named to replace S-Sgt. Jack Fisher on recruit duty in Marion when the latter's tour of duty is up. He is S-Sgt. Gerald T. Beckett, a veteran of 11 years in the corps. He comes to Marion from Camp LeJeune, N.C., where he was an operations chief. Prior to that he was aboard the carrier Intrepid in the Mediterranean Sea.

Sgt. Beckett is married and has two children. He served with Co. A, 1st Battalion of the 1st Marines in Korea from February to November, 1952, receiving a Purple Heart for wounds suffered in one of several actions. He and his family will reside in the Windsor Apartments.

Rev. Robinson Named Pastor At Kirkpatrick

A new Methodist pastor in Marion County will be the Rev. Stanley Robinson who comes to the Kirkpatrick and Claridon churches from Gageville.

He was appointed to serve the two congregations at the session of the denomination's North-East Ohio annual conference at Lakeside Saturday night. The charge is in the Mansfield District of the conference. Marion County's several Methodist Churches are in the Lima District of the larger Ohio conference.

Leaving the Kirkpatrick-Claridon pulpits, the Rev. Ralph Hollingsworth will move to Roscoe.

Among several other changes in the district was the assignment of a new pastor to Ashley where the Rev. R. D. Cunningham moves from Mingo Junction. The former Ashley pastor, the Rev. H. L. Borden, was appointed to the Perrysville pastorate.

The Rev. Donald Adams will come to Crestline from Roscoe replacing the Rev. C. L. Yoder who has retired but has accepted work as an associate pastor in Wooster.

Moving to Galion from Indianola Church in Youngstown will be the Rev. Olyn Hull. He will take the place of the Rev. N. R. Somerville whose new pastorate is at the Indianola Church.

the exploding still entered by one group and a more serious note in the presence of three Civil Defense trucks ready to come to the aid of the community in case of disaster.

The crowd lined the streets along the entire route of the parade from the courty fairgrounds on the north side, to the business district in the center of town.

It was an appreciative and demonstrative audience which watched the marchers and floats file past, displaying its favor for certain entries by frequent applause.

A RECEPTION and buffet supper for members of the press, radio and television staffs covering the events was held in the early evening at the Fort Delaware Hotel and was followed by the group attending the pageant.

The pageant, despite a few rough spots attributed to opening night jitters, was well performed and well received. It traced the history of Delaware and Delaware County from the time of the Indians to the present day and was climaxed with the explosion of a "mock atomic bomb," with the question of whether mankind would find good or evil in the future in the unleashing of atomic energy.

Sunday's activities were devoted mostly to religious ceremonies as religious heritage day was marked. Main speaker at the ceremonies held at the fairgrounds Sunday night was Charles P. Taft of Cincinnati. Taking part in the program were 'e representatives of the first six churches to be established in Delaware County, Presbyterians, Baptists, Episcopalians, Methodists, Lutherans and Catholics.

An unusual note was added to the countryside Sunday morning when the Rev. Fred L. Wollerman, pastor of the Radnor-Thompson Old Stone Presbyterian Church, rode the six miles to church on horseback in old-time preacher's attire.

He stopped on the way at the homes of members of his flock to call them out to worship services. Over his saddle was a rusty musket-loading flintlock gun. The ride was an approximation of the way the first pastor, Joseph S. Hughs, called the people to worship back in 1810 when the county was a wilderness.

THE SESQUI QUEEN, Cleone McNamara, was chosen on the basis of votes and tickets sold for the pageant. Her maid of honor is Miss Pat Piper. Others ranking high and forming the queen's court are Miss Kay Hardin, Miss Carolyn Lowry, Miss Glenna James, Miss Barbara Gale, Miss Alice Smith, Miss Diana Whetsel, Miss Susie Fontanelle, Miss Norma Shaw, Miss Lois Humes and Miss Linda Longwell.

Wayne Hilborn is general chairman of the week-long celebration.

Events slated for the rest of the week include a youth day program today, a labor and industry day Tuesday, Ladies Day Wednesday, Homecoming Day Thursday and American Heritage Day Friday.

The event the men have been awaiting for some time will come Thursday when their beards, consisting of nearly every type of facial adornment imaginable, will be judged. Prizes will be awarded in several categories, full beard, most handsome, ugliest, Van Dyke or chin whisker, sideburns or mutton chops and most colorful with the reddest, blackest and whitest winning. A special division also has been set up for the best of character with the beards representing those worn by famous persons in history.

A style show on Ladies Day will give the women their chance to win prizes for their old-fashioned dresses.

Several units from Marion County participated in the parade Saturday including the Harding High School Band and the locomotive of the Marion Voiture 48, 40 et 8. The locomotive also was used in the pageant portraying the first train through Delaware.

were manhandled while meting out disciplinary layoffs to seven workers for failure to meet production standards. Both day and night shifts were idled Friday.

United Auto Workers bargaining teams, supported by a 14-to-1 membership vote to strike if necessary, resumed new contract talks with the Big Three.

Strike Votes Taken

Strike votes at UAW locals at General Motors, Ford and Chrysler plants throughout the country were asked by UAW President Walter P. Reuther to support negotiators.

The UAW said its latest strike vote tabulation listed 128,127 members in favor of strike action, compared with 8,645 against. The balloting is less than half completed at GM and Ford and just getting under way at Chrysler.

UAW members have been working without contracts for a month. Reuther has ordered them not to provoke disputes, indicating he is in no hurry about threatening strike action as long as companies have big stockpiles of 1958 models on hand with the 1959 model year approaching.

Mercury Climbs To 85 in Marion

Summer, at long last, finally got "down to brass tacks" over the weekend. The mercury hit 83 Saturday, 85 Sunday and was expected to peak at 88 today.

The sun, following the overnight low of 61, rose on a cloudless sky this morning and by noon had nudged the temperature to 81.

While area farmers "made hay" with a flourish, the weatherman released a weather forecast calling for fair and warmer circumstances both tonight and Tuesday.

'Y' Summer Craft Shop Set To Open Tomorrow

The instructional period in arts and crafts will run from 1:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays throughout the remainder of the summer. Instructor will be Mrs. Ruth Peters.

Miss Bailey noted that a small fee will be charged for course materials. Interested youngsters may sign up during Tuesday's initial meeting, she said.

City Will Charge Extra for Excess Refuse Collected

Enforcement of a limitation on the amount of garbage and refuse that will be picked up without additional charge was announced today by Mayor Wendell L. Strong.

Beginning immediately, residential customers will be required to pay extra for all garbage in excess of 10 gallons and all refuse in excess of three bushels that is picked up by sanitation department crews, he said.

Enforcement of the limitations as set forth in Sec. 13.24 of the city code is made necessary because too many customers are putting out large quantities of rubbish for collection and this is causing the sanitation crews to run behind schedule, the mayor said.

Patrons of the city refuse and garbage collection service pay a quarterly fee of $3.75 which amounts to 31.25 a month or slightly more than 31 cents a week.

against those who challenge it. Some call it the Mafia, some call it the syndicate."

McClellan said the hearings will show a continuing tie between such a syndicate and gangster Charles (Lucky) Luciano, who was deported to Italy.

McClellan said it may take four months or more of hearings to show what new laws are needed to deal with what he called the American criminal syndicate. He said 100 witnesses have been subpoenaed.

The committee chose to launch the hearings with an effort to get at more facts about the alleged crime convention which drew some 65 racketeers, hoodlums and others to Apalachin, N.Y., last fall.

Laborer Shoots Child, Turns Gun on Himself

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — A 14-year-old Painesville girl was shot to death on her front lawn and a Puerto Rican laborer was wounded in the chest Sunday in what police described as a murder and suicide attempt.

Killed was Caroline Walter, struck by three bullets from a .25 caliber automatic revolver — including one which pierced her heart.

Police said they were fired by Antonio Ramos, 29, described as a friend of the family for more than three years, who then shot himself. Ramos was reported in fair condition at Lake County Memorial Hospital.

Caroline's two sisters, Esther, 12, and Janet Lee, 16, witnessed the shootings. Esther told police Ramos walked a few steps after shooting Caroline, then turned the gun on himself.

The girls' mother, Mrs. William F. Walter Sr., said Ramos had asked one of them to accompany him to a nearby store. When they all refused, Ramos became angry and pulled the gun from his pocket, she said.

WHICH WASH-n-WEAR Will Turn Color ?

Select Wash-n-Wear blouses carefully if you choose to buy them. One brand may launder satisfactorily. Another may turn dirty yellow or fall apart. This may happen to dress or sport shirts, blouses, work or play clothes, or other wash-n-wear fabrics and garments, white or colored, normally bleached for stain removal and retention of original whiteness.

According to AMERICAN INSTITUTE of LAUNDERING, inferior wash-n-wear garments may be made with certain resin finishes that absorb chlorine from hypochlorite bleach, commonly used. This can't rinse out and heat from ironing creates an acid which yellows or destroys the fabric.

If you buy wash-n-wear or other washables, be sure they carry the CERTIFIED WASHABLE SEAL of American Institute of Laundering. It certifies we can launder them to perfection.

Top Labor Chiefs Join In Drive To Oust Adams

By VICTOR RIESEL

Strong forces have been signaled up to drive Sherman Adams not only from the White House but from all public service. This signaling came June 21 in acid words in the lead editorial of the national AFL-CIO newspaper — which for the first time ripped off the cover on a bitter behind-the-scenes war between the White House "chief - of - staff" and the nation's labor chiefs.

VICTOR RIESEL

The editorial, after caustic comment about President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon, wound up with this stone-ax subtlety:

"The President may not be in a position to operate without his 'chief-of-staff' but the nation can easily do without the self-righteous, sanctimonious Sherman Adams who has established at the White House a set of moral and ethical standards that reflect the worst practices of the big business 'influence-peddling' philosophy."

These are harsh words, even for this official labor newspaper, which is not exactly enamored of the Republicans.

THE ATTACK was long in coming and would have been unleashed even if there had been no Bernard Goldfine late in life strutting across the national stage before a vicuna backdrop.

Actually the Adams - labor feud broke just a few days before the Goldfine saga did. This happened when Sherman Adams personally crossed AFL-CIO President George Meany's name off the list of American delegates to the United Nations for the next year.

John Foster Dulles and Henry Cabot Lodge had asked President Eisenhower to rename the union chief. Adams refused. The labor leaders took this as a personal insult. There is little doubt that Adams meant it to be — for reasons I'll report shortly.

Furthermore, the labor chiefs are convinced that it was Sherman Adams who advised the President on his decision to fight hard for a tougher labor reform bill. It was Adams who instructed Labor Secretary James Mitchell to fly in and out of Europe to dramatize the White House fight for stricter union regulations.

BUT WHAT created the greatest bitterness was the White House refusal to deal with or confer regularly with the top labor chiefs on the recession.

There was one formal visit with President Eisenhower. George Meany led the labor delegation which talked with the President for the better part of an hour — and then never heard from any high echelon White House officials again.

This the labor leaders attribute absolutely and directly to the cool man from New Hampshire. They will tell you they believe that Adams kept the real news and statistics of the recession from the President — and that meant keeping him from actual contact with the national labor chiefs, too.

As the union leaders look back in anger, they note that Mr. Adams and some of his aides singled out some of the unions' best political friends and criticized them for working with the labor people.

The labor leaders say this was particularly unfair because as far back as the beginning of the Eisenhower administration, that's precisely what Mr. Adams attempted to do.

A CHECK REVEALS this to be true. Back in 1952, Gen. Eisenhower was elected. Adams was one of a trio who devised campaign strategy. The other two were Henry Cabot Lodge and Harold Stassen. Midway in that campaign, a decision had to be made on how to approach the labor leaders.

Mr. Eisenhower was scheduled to appear before the AFL convention at New York's Hotel Commodore. What had to be decided was whether to woo the labor people there or bluntly tell the influential union leaders that their friendship was desirable but that concessions — if any — would be worked out after the election. Party conservatives wanted blunt talk. Mr. Adams voted for wooing. That's the way it went.

To Mr. Adams, who has never been personally anti - union, it was an objective matter of politics. When wooing failed to swing the labor leaders toward the GOP Mr. Adams decided to disengage. He was in that process, when Goldfine hit the headlines.

Local Program for Retarded Children Will Be Expanded

Announcement was made today of plans to extend the program for mentally retarded children in Marion County to include a full nine-month sheltered workshop. The Marion County Council for Retarded Children has authorized the employment of three teachers to make this possible.

During the last school year, in addition to the two regular classes that have been in operation, a two - month sheltered workshop was held. The success of this additional facility has induced council members to plan a full-termed extension of this project.

The education committee, composed of Cecil W. Gabler, Clyde Forrey and Walter Blume, has been authorized to employ three staff members for next school year. Mrs. Paul Lister will continue as one of the teachers for next year but an additional teacher and a workshop director will be needed. Minimum educational requirements are two years of college training. Preference will be given to applicants who have previous teaching experience. For more information candidates may call James Painter, superintendent of the Marion County Children's Home.

Classes are held at the Marion County Children's Home from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. five days each week during the school year.

Orioles Batter Indians Twice With 23-Hit Assault

Gordon Uses 10 Pitchers In Attempt To Stem Tide

CLEVELAND (AP)—The honeymoon is over. And nobody knows it any better than Joe Gordon, Cleveland's new manager.

After watching the Indians play inspired baseball in winning the first two games for him, Gordon had a fit Sunday as the Tribe lost a doubleheader to the Baltimore Orioles 11-6 and 5-2.

"Yeah, I found out pretty fast we couldn't win 'em all but I sure hate to lose doubleheaders," said Gordon.

10 Hurlers See Action

He used 10 pitchers in an attempt to head off the hit-happy Orioles who collected 23 safeties in the twin bill.

"No question about it, our pitching is pretty thin," Gordon said after the double loss. "I don't know whether anything can be done about it or not."

The two losses gave the Indians a disastrous home stand of four victories in a dozen games. They stayed in sixth place—but only a shade ahead of Baltimore.

The Orioles pinned the first game loss on rookie Gary Bell, who gave up five runs in two innings. Jim Constable lost the nightcap, being belted for four runs in the first three frames.

The Orioles were paced by Bob Boyd, the fleet first baseman who smacked five singles and two doubles—including five-for-five in the opener.

Power Gets 5 Hits

Gene Woodling hurt his old mates with a two-run homer in the first game. Vic Power and J. W. Porter smacked two-run homers for the Tribe in that contest in which the Indians had a dozen hits.

Power, who had five hits in the doubleheader, drove in both runs in the afterpiece with a sixth-inning single.

Rookie Milt Pappas won his fifth game and second straight over the Indians in the first contest with help from George Zuverink over the final three frames. Arnold Portocarrero notched his fifth triumph with a five-hitter in the nightcap. He also drove in two runs.

Legion Drops 14-2 Decision At Mansfield

Marion and Mansfield clashed in an American Legion game Sunday, with the Mansfield nine, hosts for the tilt, emerging victorious, 14-2.

The victors got 14 runs on 13 hits and made seven errors. Marion scored twice on one hit and was charged with four bobbles.

Marion scored first, taking a 1-0 lead in the initial frame. They added another tally in the second and from then on it was strictly silence from local bats.

Mansfield tied up the count at 1-1 in the first, added another tally in the second, skipped the third, posted four runs in the fourth, added two in the sixth and seven in the seventh.

Marion's first run came when Evans walked, went to second on a sacrifice and scored on an error. They tallied in the second on a pair of errors by Mansfield defensivemen.

Mansfield tallied in the second frame on three hits, added four in the fourth on three strolls and a trio of safeties. Their two in the sixth came on a double by Hawkins, a single by Cain and a throwing error. The seventh frame blast came on three hits, a pair of walks and two boots.

Selby, Mansfield's pitcher, had a no-hitter going until Marion's Keller singled in the eighth. He fanned nine. Moody started on the hill for Marion, was jerked for Moore in the fifth, with Ambrose coming on in the seventh.

Marion will practice tonight and Wednesday at 5:30 on the Harding diamond. Uniforms must be worn for a team picture Wednesday night.

Green Camp clipped New Bloomington 5-2 Saturday night in a Marion County League baseball contest at the losers' diamond. It was the fourth win in five games for the winners. They have lost only to Radnor while beating Caledonia, Pleasant and Ridgedale.

Flach was the winning hurler. He gave up only two base hits. Larry Basel was on the mound for Green Camp. He also allowed only two safeties but was hurt by bases on balls. John Roettger and Jordan collected Green Camp's base hits while Jolliff and Boles had the losers' safeties.

The winners scored on runs in the first, two in the second and two in the fifth. New Bloomington pushed over one in the second and fourth.

Little League Farm System Opens Season

What was described as a "very fine" crowd turned out at Lincoln Park's baseball diamond Saturday morning to see the Marion Baseball for Boys "farm" system schedule get under way.

Eight teams have been organized from 160 youths making up the organization, including youths dropped from Little League rosters, plus others interested in the game of "hit and run."

In Saturday's action, the Federal Tigers downed the Federal Giants, 9-1; the National Dodgers dropped a 11-4 tilt to the National Braves; the American Red Sox pasted the American Indians, 1-6; and the National Phillies triumped over the Federal Athletics, 15-3.

The Tigers, with Botts pitching, got nine runs on seven hits. Giant stickmen managed one run on two hits. McEldownny hurled. Dodger batters walloped 11 runs on five hits to help pitcher Warp to the win. The losing Braves had four runs on five safeties. Williams was on the hill.

Culp pitched for the Red Sox, who banged 11 runs on seven hits. The Indians, with Morbitt on the rubber, got six runs on five hits. And, the Phillies backed up pitcher Postell with 15 runs on nine wallops, while the Athletics got six runs on three safeties. Shapard was the fireman.

Another four games are slated for Saturday, with the first contest to start at 8:30 a.m. As the system is set up, the games are officially over after four innings. But, to enable all hands to play, each tilt runs two extra frames. Pitchers for all teams are limited to lads 9 and 10 years old.

Palmer Nails 3rd Straight Golf Victory

EAST NORWICH, N.Y. (AP)—It's getting to be old stuff for Arnold Palmer, this collecting top money in golf tournaments.

The $50,000 Long Island Open which he won Sunday was his third victory of the year, and the 11th since he turned pro in 1955. Although he isn't sneering at the $9,000 he picked up, it still isn't the biggest check he has collected.

That was for $11,200 earned at a Masters this year by the young man from Latrobe, Pa., who is top money winner of the pro circuit with $37,564.

Three players who didn't win Sunday, however, were more than ordinarily happy. They are Don Fairfield of Casey, Ill., Jay Hebert, of Sanford, Fla., and Al Mengert, of Westfield, N.J.

Fairfield got $3,000 for his third place finish, Hebert $4,600 for finishing second, and Mengert $1,675 for tieing for seventh.

They were the largest checks the three ever earned in a tournament.

Plutocrat Palmer won practically as he pleased in the 72 hole event, finishing with 273, five strokes ahead of Hebert. Fairfield had 279.

Sam Snead, Ted Kroll and Bob Rosburg tied for fourth place at 280, with Al Mengert, Doug Ford, Stan Leonard and Henry Ransom tying for seventh at 281.

Waldo Ball Team Rips Prospect 16-1

Waldo, playing a Pony baseball game against Prospect Friday night, walloped the Bulldogs 16-1 in a five-inning game cut short by a 10-run lead rule.

All told, Waldo, with Dave Rosenberger hurling a no-hitter, scored 16 runs on 16 hits. Temple was the Waldo backstop. Prospect, with Lauer, Blevins and Wheeler pitching and Barnett behind the plate, got its lone tally as a result of a hit batsman and an error.

Waldo scored four times on five hits in the first, twice on two hits in the second, likewise in the third and fourth and six times on five safeties in the sixth inning nightcap.

Prospect's run came in the initial session.

The victors' Harry Klingel was four for four at the plate, with Charles Temple accounting for a triple and two doubles. Kenny Edwards banged a pair of two-baggers and a single.

Redlegs Silenced

Newcombe Beaten In 2-0 Mound Duel

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Cincinnati Redleg brass figure they got a bargain in big Don Newcombe, the former Los Angeles Dodger acquired to give Redleg pitching a shot in the arm.

But now the team needs a shot in the hitting arm.

Newcombe tried his best to scatter 10 hits Sunday, but he got no support at the plate. San Francisco's Giants shut out the Rhinelanders, 2-0, at Cincinnati.

Newcombe's teammates contributed only four singles.

The Giants' first marker came in the third inning starting with Bob Schmidt's single. Al Worthington, the winning pitcher, didn't help his own cause by forcing Schmidt, but Ed Bressoud singled and Daryl Spencer doubled in the run.

Worthington also got in on the final Giant scoring in the seventh, leading off with a single, taking second on Bressoud's sacrifice and scoring on Willie Mays' double.

The Redlegs moved out for Milwaukee after the game. A three-game series is planned with the Braves, the first one tonight with Redleg Bob Purkey scheduled to pitch, opposing Warren Spahn.

Jets Whipped In Both Games By Montreal

By The Associated Press

Just one swish of the bat was all that Johnny Bucha needed to go from goat to hero.

Bucha, 33-year-old catcher for the Miami Marlins of the International League, came to bat Sunday with his team losing by a run and two men out. He promptly singled home the tying and winning runs for a 4-3 Miami victory in the second game of a doubleheader with the Rochester Red Wings.

In the 10th inning of the first game, Bucha dropped the ball when a runner ran into him at home plate to score the winning run in Rochester's 5-4 victory. That runner, incidentally, had been allowed to go from first to third base when Bucha overthrew the bag at second in a steal attempt.

The Montreal Royals swept a double header from the Columbus Jets, 4-3 and 4-1. The Toronto Maple Leafs defeated the Richmond Virginians 7-5 aftr winning the completion of a suspended game of May 25, 7-4. The Buffalo Bisons beat the Havana Sugar Kings 5-4 in 12 innings after dropping the opener 3-0.

Western All-Stars

Pitching — Pedro Ramos, Senators, allowed five hits for second shutout, sixth victory, 12-0 over White Sox.

Hitting — Jim Lemon, Senators and Bob Boyd, Orioles, Lemon drove in nine runs with double, triple, two homers in split with White Sox. Boyd had seven hits in nine at bats, was on base eight consecutive times in 11-6, 5-2 sweep over Indians.

Hank Aaron Bats in Seven Runs as Braves Win 10-6

By The Associated Press

Looks as if all Henry Aaron needed to start hammerin' away was a vote of confidence from the players, managers and coaches who've watched him tear apart National League fences year after year.

The little Milwaukee Braves' outfielder, 1957 NL most valuable player but a batting bust for most of '58, was hitting .258 Friday when he won his league's right field job for the All-Star Game July 8.

Boosts Batting Average

Since then, he's 9-for-11, while driving in seven runs, boosting his home runs to 14 and upping his average to .282.

Sunday, Aaron rapped a grand slam homer and three singles and drove in five runs to lead the Braves to a 10-6 victory over Los Angeles.

The triumph, Bob Rush's sixth despite a four-homer Dodger barrage, lifted the Braves into a 2½ game lead over St. Louis, in second place by a scant percentage point, and San Francisco.

The Cardinals lost the opener by a doubleheader to the Philadelphia Phillies, 5-4. Curfew rules ended the second game with the Phils batting in the eighth.

Cubs, Pirates Split

San Francisco blanked Cincinnati 2-0 behind Al Worthington's four-hitter, while Chicago and Pittsburgh split. The Cubs, with Dale Long driving in four runs, won the second 8-3 after Frank Thomas' 22nd homer had helped the Pirates to a 4-3 first game victory.

Gene Conley closed out the Milwaukee victory for ex-Cub Rush (6-3) as rookie Stan Williams lost for a 3-2 record.

For the Phils, reliever Jack Meyer (1-1) picked up his first victory after nine straight losses.

For the Pirates, reliever Roy Face (3-2) topped Taylor Phillips (5-2), blanking the Cubs without a hit in the last three innings.

Dees Will Join Denver In AAU Basketball Play

CINCINNATI (AP)—Archie Dees of Indiana, picked twice as the Big Ten's most valuable player, plans to join the Denver D-C Truckers of the National Industrial Basketball League.

The Cincinnati's Royals picked Dees as their No. 1 choice in the National Basketball Assn. draft last spring but has been unable to sign him.

A Royals spokesman said Sunday, "He wants to play a few years of AAU ball to see how good he is before trying the NBA."

Radnor IOOF Team Notches Two Victories

RADNOR — The Radnor IOOF baseball team rolled to a pair of wins in weekend action. The local nine rapped Columbus AC 8-2 in a Saturday night Mark Stephens League game and then came back Sunday to bump Galena 9-4 in a Sunday Amateur League tilt.

Both games were scheduled road games but were moved to the Radnor diamond.

Dave Masters was the winning hurler in Saturday night's game. He gave up only four base hits in six and one-third innings before giving way to Mike Clark. Clark blanked the losers without a hit for two and two-thirds innings and struck out five.

Charley Gray led a 12-hit Radnor attack with a double and a triple. Roger McCombs laced out a pair of singles.

In Sunday's game Galena pushed over a run in the first inning but the local team came storming back to score five in the second.

George Steele was the winning pitcher. He struck out 13 in six innings before Clark and Taylor came in to finish the game. The winners collected 10 hits with Lowell Taylor getting three, one a three-run triple in the second. Gary Salyer banged out three singles.

Three games are scheduled this week at the local diamond. Radnor High School will meet the Marysville Legion nine Tuesday at 8 p.m. The IOOF team will play Allen Milk of Columbus Friday in a 2:30 p.m. holiday attraction and then take on Dan Royhans Saturday at 8 p.m. The Saturday night foe will carry a 6-0 mark into the game. The Columbus club scored single runs in the first, sixth and seventh for the Saturday night win while Wilson scored one in the eighth and one in the ninth.

Sharrel Leffler was on the mound for the losers. He struck out six and allowed nine base hits. Anderman, the winning pitcher, struck out 13 batters. Bob Emmons, Jim Kirk and Leffler all had two hits for Green Camp.

Mount Victory scored three runs in the first inning Sunday but Wilson's came back with three in the bottom half. The losers grabbed a 5-2 lead with single runs in the third and sixth. Wilson scored one in the sixth and won the game with two tallies in the eighth.

WAPAKONETA, Ohio (AP)—Auto racer Jim Davis of Indianapolis was fatally injured yesterday when his racer and one driven by Ed Elisian of Oakland, Calif., flipped over.

Davis, 25, died at Memorial Hospital in nearby St. Marys, where Elisian was treated for head cuts and bruises and released.

Independents Split in Big 8 Softball Action

The Marion Independents broke even in a pair of weekend games in the Big Eight League. The local nine dropped a 2-1 verdict to Gibsonburg here Saturday night and won 4-2 Sunday at Norwalk.

Sonny Taylor and Rip Riley hooked up in the Saturday night mound duel with Taylor matching the Gibsonburg hurler inning for inning. The Marionites lost after a 10-inning battle.

Marion's only run came in the fourth frame. Dick Mulvaine lined a single into center field and when the ball got past the outfielder he raced all the way home.

The visitors tied the count in the sixth. Reinke led off with a double and went to third on a sacrifice. He came home on a pop fly to short leftfield. Riley helped his own cause in the top of the 10th. He opened with a triple and scooted home with the winning run on a single by Smith.

Marion threatened in the 10th when Fritz Walters singled, went to the second on an error and took third on an infield out. He was unable to score after one man was out. Marion finished the game with three base hits while the winners collected six. Walters staved off further trouble in the sixth inning when he robbed Tyson of a base hit. Tyson laced a hard grounder through the pitcher's box. The ball hit the second base bag and Walters, playing at shortstop, grabbed it on a dive and threw the runner out at first while still in the air.

Riley struck out 12 Marion batters, walked two and hit one. Taylor finished with six strikeouts, walked one and hit a batter. Bob Saull, Walters and Mulvaine had the only hits for Marion.

The Independents missed several scoring chances in the early innings Sunday at Norwalk. Base runners reached third base in the first four innings but couldn't score. Norwalk had the same trouble but couldn't reach Bud Thorpe for a payoff hit. Thorpe struck out the side three times after runners had reached base.

Norwalk scored first in the seventh. Berry singled, moved to second on an error, took third on a sacrifice and scored on an infield single. Marion broke the game open in the eighth. Jim Riley singled and rode home on a triple by Mulvaine. Michaels came in to pitch for Norwalk and was greeted by a single by Bob Saull. Johnson was hit by a pitch and both runners moved up by a sacrifice. Jim Frank, hitless in 19 trips to the plate, then banged out a two-run single.

The losers added their final run in the ninth.

Thorpe finished the game with 13 strikeouts, walked four and hit one. Norwalk pitchers struck out five, walked one and hit two batters.

Youth League Formed For Green Camp Boys

In an effort to provide supervised recreation for some of its youngsters from 5 to 8 years of age, the Green Camp community has organized a "peewee" baseball team.

The outfit is being managed by H. D. Kempton and the team is seeking Saturday games with crews whose members are a similar size.

A canvass will be made of Green Camp homes Wednesday by youngsters belonging to the organization, who will solicit funds to purchase uniforms. In addition, donation cans have been placed in the Davis grocery store and Gulliford's hardware for the same purpose.

The fledgling diamondmen have been working out the last several Saturdays and are ready for action. Games may be scheduled by calling 2-9821.

Segura Holding Early Lead in Tennis Action

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Pancho Segura has an early lead in the $15,000 Masters Round Robin professional tennis championships.

He downed Rex Hartwig, 7-9, 6-2, 8-6, Sunday after upsetting champion Pancho Gonzales, 9-7, 7-9, 6-2 Saturday.

Wimbledon Play Continues

Althea Gibson Favored To Keep Tennis Crown

WIMBLEDON, England (AP)—Althea Gibson will retain her singles crown at the Wimbledon Tennis tourney this week says former champion Margaret DuPont.

"You have got to give the defending champion the edge," said Mrs. DuPont today. "I cannot see anyone beating her.

"I had Christine Truman of England rated as likely runner-up until she lost to Mimi Arnold. I was surprised that Christine lost. Mimi is a great little fighter but I do not think she is a serious contender for the title."

Mrs. DuPont won the women's title in 1947.

Christine was upset 10-8, 6-3 Saturday by little Miss Arnold, 19 years of tennis power and punch from Redwood City, Calif. The result was a knockout blow to British fans.

Only fifth-seeded Luis Ayala of Chile has been removed from the list of the top eight men. Nervousness beat Ayala almost as much as the brilliant tennis of Italy's Nicola Pietrangeli.

Top men's match today is the one between U. S. ace Barry Mackay of Dayton, Ohio, and Ramanathan Krishnan of India.

Down the Fairway

Perfect weather favored golfing activities at both the Mar-O-Del and Country Club courses over the weekend.

Mar-O-Del linksmen played host to the Mount Gilead iron and mashiemen Sunday and took a 4½-6½ victory from the visitors.

Low medal scorers for Marion were as follows: John Rife, 73; Tom Wood, 74; Jerry Wynn, 77; Elda Fields, 77; Don Miller, 78; and Elmer Davis, 79. Tallying lows for Mount Gilead were Roy Johnson, 78; Cecil Calvin, 79; Richard Behrend, 80; Richard Harris, 84; John Anderson, 85; and Gail Weller, 86.

Sixteen men played on each team. Mar-O-Del's crew will journey to Mount Gilead Aug. 17 for a return match. A rotating trophy is at stake in the series, with possession going to the team with the highest point total for the two matches. Marion won the prize last year.

Medal play featured fairway activity at the Country Club Saturday, with routine golf stroked Sunday.

Low medal scores in Saturday's action were turned in by Harry Lazear, 67; Barney Buettin, 67; Clarence Freeman, 68; Herb Petrich, 69; Dr. William Leffler, 69; George Howser, 70; Robert Bagley, 71; Wayne Jenkins, 71; Warren Rowley, 71; Robert Axe, 71; Robert Haldeman, 72; Sherm Haldeman, 72; Robert Mason, 74; Harold Grigsby, 74; and Joe Casey, 74.

Both the Mar-O-Del and Country Club are planning holiday weekend activities, with plans at both courses yet to be completed.

The Country Club, however, will dedicate the new nine-hole addition to its course Tuesday at 4 p.m., with a mixed foursome tourney and a dinner to follow.

AP MUFFLERS ARE LONGER LASTING BECAUSE OF:

- "Dri-Flow" Design
- 2/3 heavier heads
- Patented Air-liner shells
- 1/3 heavier shells
- Coated metals, asbestos liners where necessary

Mufflers don't blow out — they rust out! That's why 2 out of every 3 cars will need exhaust system service within the next 12 months. But AP's revolutionary new "Dri-Flow" Design runs drier, licks the problem of corrosive moisture. And AP's heavier coated steels give added protection against rustout and road hazards. Toll Includes 12 Traffic Deaths

Mishaps Claim 24 Lives In Ohio Over Weekend

By The Associated Press

Death snatched three lives from the hands of would-be rescuers in Ohio over the weekend. In another incident, the rescue was successful, but the rescuer died.

Near Fostoria, a father turned from his fishing and spotted his 3-year-old son waddling on railroad tracks in the path of an oncoming train. He raced to the rescue, but when only six feet from his son, the train struck and killed the boy, knocking the limp body into the father's outstretched arms.

At Cincinnati, a 4-year-old boy saw his 3-year-old brother coming close to falling out of a second-story window. The older child got there in time to save his brother's life — but he himself fell to his death.

Boat Drifts Away

In Ottawa County, near the mouth of the Toussaint River, a man and a woman anchored their 16-foot outboard boat and went swimming. The boat started to drift away. They tried to get back. In panic, the woman started to go under. Her companion held her head above water, but she slipped from his grasp and drowned. He was saved when help arrived from another boat.

Near Kelleys Island in Lake Erie, a Vermilion couple were aboard a 30-foot cabin cruiser when tragedy struck. The husband went below deck momentarily, leaving his wife sitting at the rear of the boat. When he returned, she was nowhere in sight, apparently having fallen overboard. He jumped in the water and found her immediately. But his efforts to revive her were in vain.

Toll at Least 24

In all, 24 persons died in Ohio accidents as recorded by The Associated Press in the weekend period from 6 p. m. Friday to midnight Sunday. Twelve were traffic victims and 12 others died in miscellaneous accidents, including four drownings.

The fatalities:

Friday night:

Robert Lewis, 22, Portage Lakes, when the car in which he was riding hit a utility pole and caught fire in that Summit County community.

Saturday:

Jane Jenkins, 6, Columbus, of injuries suffered Friday night when hit by a car on U. S. 62 south of Columbus.

Lynn E. Clark, 28, Barberton, when his car hit a tree off Ohio 5 about 1½ miles south of Doylestown in Wayne County.

Jean R. Stanton, 29, Cleveland, when the car in which she was riding hit a wall opposite the exit ramp of a city bridge.

Robert V. Armbruster, 25, Dayton, in a house fire there.

John Henry Richardson, 38, Cleveland, when fire swept a one-story house where 10 to 15 persons were attending a party.

Percy B. Johnson, 52, Lima, hit by a car there.

Sheryl Schall, 7, Youngstown, struck by a car while crossing the street there.

Jack DeMint, 4, Cincinnati, in a 30-foot fall from a second floor window at his house while keeping a younger brother from falling.

George T. Anderson, 37, Alliance, when his car hit a tree off Ohio 619 two miles west of Alliance.

Thomas Schmidt, 15, Anna (Shelby County), when his car hit a wall beside Ohio 119 west of McCartyville, also in Shelby County.

Lewis Rice, 3, Fostoria, struck by a train seven miles west of Fostoria after wandering away from his father, who was fishing.

Mrs. Ellen Andress, 49, Vermilion drowned when she fell into Lake Erie from a cabin cruiser off Kelleys Island.

Sunday:

John Henry Baker, 45, Toledo, hit by a train near Perrysburg as he walked along the right of way.

Robert Witter, 51, East Cleveland, when his car hit a utility pole there.

Melvin D. McGaughey, 49, Cleveland, when his car jumped a curb and hit a building in Cleveland.

Fred Steutzer, 30, Geneva, and Joe Jacobs, 32, North Madison (Lake County), when a light plane piloted by Steutzer crashed shortly after taking off from Argonne Airport at Geneva-on-the-Lake.

Bruce Neal, 10, Middletown, drowned when he apparently hit his head on the bottom while diving at a pool at Chautauqua (Montgomery County).

Lowell W. King, 65, Salem, hit by third car after being thrown from his car when it collided with another on Ohio 534, about a mile south of the U. S. 224 intersection near Youngstown.

Jim Davis, 25, Indianapolis, when his sprintcar flipped over at New Bremen Speedway during a five-mile race.

William Brooks, 30, Dayton, drowned in Twin Creek at Germantown Dam near Dayton after diving into the water.

Miss Joan Tasch, 27, of near Oak Harbor, drowned in the Teussaint River when the boat from which she had been swimming drifted away.

Melvin H. Tackett, 9, Dunkirk, struck by a car while riding a bicycle on Ohio 81 about one mile west of that Hardin County town.

2 Dead, 2 Hurt In Plane Crash

Small Craft Wrecked Near Geneva-on-Lake

ASHTABULA, Ohio (AP) — A small plane crashed as it was taking off from the Argonne Airport at Geneva-on-the-Lake Sunday, killing two men and injuring two children of one of the victims.

Killed were:

Fred Steutzer, 35, owner and pilot of the plane, a four-place Piper Cruiser J-5.

Joseph Jacobs, 32, of North Madison, a motor tester at the Electric Products Co. in Cleveland.

Injured were:

Joseph Jacobs Jr., 5-year-old son of the dead man, and Terryetta Jacobs, 11, daughter of Jacobs' wife by a previous marriage.

Both were reported in fair condition at Geneva Memorial Hospital. Attendants said the boy suffered a possible skull fracture, fractures of the right arm and shoulder, and cuts and bruises, and the girl suffered a broken right leg and cuts and bruises.

The plane crashed in a field about 200 feet north of the airport. Witnesses said it lost speed a few moments after takeoff and fell to the ground.

Steutzer, an Air Force Reserve pilot who owned two planes based at the airport, had been hired by Jacobs to take him and the children for a ride.

Mrs. Jacobs, who accompanied her husband and children to the airport, witnessed the crash.

Takes Ohio AFL-CIO Post

Elmer Cope Is Termed New Style Labor Chief

By DUKE YATES

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Elmer F. Cope, the new secretary-treasurer of the Ohio AFL-CIO, is what some people like to call a new style labor leader.

The old style, according to popular legend, was a pudgy cigar-smoker with a one word vocabulary—"more."

But Cope is a friendly, erudite man with two college degrees and a fondness for discussing the intricacies of economics.

—:—

LOOKING AT this well-groomed, quiet, ruddy-faced man with the greying hair and quick smile it is hard to believe that he began his career as an unskilled laborer. Or, that as one of the original organizers of the United Steelworkers Union he was in the thick of one of the most violent labor disputes in American history — the famed Little Steel strike of 1937.

"That was a rough year, 1937," Cope said.

There have been many rough years in Cope's life.

He spent his youth in and around the tin mills of Elwood, Ind., and Warren, Ohio. He was born in Elwood 55 years ago. His family moved to Warren a few weeks after Armistice Day, 1918.

"My father worked in the tin mills for 35 years," Cope said, "and I started there during my summer vacations from school when I was 16.

"In those days the mills were not the automatic operation they are today and the tin and steel sheets had to be fused by hand. You worked close by the side of the furnaces and sometimes the floor under you got so hot a splash of water turned to steam."

COPE EARLY began to develop the social conscious that would eventually lead him into the labor movement. But its first expression was a desire to be a doctor.

He took pre-medical courses at Ohio Wesleyan University for 2½ years before drifting to Philadelphia where he alternated work in the shipyards and factories with economic classes at Swarthmore College.

"I thought for a time I wanted to be a doctor," he said with a slightly self-conscious smile, "but I guess I was too much interested in economics and social problems."

The 1929 crash which came just a few months after he got his degree marked the start of his labor career.

During the early 30s he helped organize unemployed citizens leagues working mainly in the Pittsburgh area.

"Actually, the leagues were bargaining agents for the unemployed," Cope said. "There were about seven relief agencies in Pittsburgh and they were always passing the buck."

—:—

THE DEPRESSION struggle broke his health. After an illness lasting several months he decided to start life all over again. So at the age of 32 he began teacher training at Western Reserve University.

"I thought I might like teaching," he said, "you see I was still interested in human and social problems."

It was at Western Reserve that he met Corrinne Snyder, a graduate student in social science, who in 1940 became Mrs. Cope. The Copes and their children, Jack, 15, and Suzy, 12, live in Preble County.

Cope received his master's degree in early June, 1936, and began looking for a teaching assignment. But on June 16 of that year the drive began to organize the steelworkers. And someone in Pittsburgh remembered Elmer Cope and his work in organizing the steel city's unemployed.

Cope was asked to help and he did. He spent the next few years organizing the workers in Ohio steel plants.

He stayed with the steelworkers, becoming director of its department of economics and international affairs. As European representative of the CIO he spent several years abroad after World War II and was instrumental in disengaging the CIO from the Communist - dominated World Federation of Trade Unions.

Eternity is the divine treasure house, and hope is the window, by means of which mortals are permitted to see, as through a glass darkly, the things which God is preparing. — William Mountford

Celebration Readied

Blast Will Create Giant Seaway Lake Tomorrow

MASSENA, N. Y. (AP) — A pent up behind a cofferdam in the surging mountain of water will flood hundreds of square miles Tuesday and bring near completion one of the greatest works in man's history.

A 30-ton dynamite blast will free nearly 200 billion gallons of water for the gigantic St. Lawrence hydroelectric power project, second largest in the world.

The pounding waves will:

1. Create Lake St. Lawrence, 35 miles long, 90 feet deep and up to five miles wide, as a reservoir for the gigantic St. Lawrence hydroelectric power project, second largest in the world.

2. Complete the United States section of the St. Lawrence Seaway, envisioned for half a century, which soon will open the Great Lakes to deep-draft, ocean-going ships.

One of Largest in History

The operation will be one of the biggest planned flooding operations in history.

Much of the famed International Rapids between the United States and Canada will disappear under the lake. The waters will cover land from which homes, industrial plants, stores and churches have been moved.

Canadians and Americans will hold separate and joint celebrations.

The seaway and power projects, both U. S. -Canadian ventures, are expected to bring a new era of prosperity to the communities adjacent to them.

The big Canadian celebration will be Tuesday—flood day. It also is Dominion Day, a national holiday. Ceremonies will be centered in Cornwall, Ont., near the giant new Barnhart Island powerhouse of the hydro-electric project.

The United States observance Tuesday will concentrate on dedication of the Eisenhower and Snell locks of the seaway. They will carry ships around the power installations and lift them 80 feet to the new lake. They will leave the other side of the lake via a Canadian lock to be completed next year.

The combined seaway-power projects are costing a billion dollars.

The governments of the United States and Canada are building the seaway. New York State and Ontario Province are partners in the hydro project.

First power from the St. Lawrence project is expected in the fall. The seaway is scheduled to be in operation next year.

Shipping on the seaway has been limited to vessels with a draft of 14 feet or less. The seaway will accommodate ships up to 27 feet.

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Youngstown, Fremont, Canton and Toledo units of the Ohio Mothers of Twins Club were awarded plaques at the club's state convention here Sunday for extraordinary service in civic endeavors and organization work. The club voted to hold next year's convention in Findlay.

500 To Take Swim Course at Bucyrus

BUCYRUS — Approximately 500 children have registered for beginners, intermediate and junior life saving classes to be sponsored at Aumiller Park here by the Crawford County Red Cross chapter.

The classes will get underway Tuesday, July 8, and continue each Tuesday and Thursday morning for the duration of the summer program at the pool.

Mrs. Charles Holtshouse, water safety chairman for the Red Cross chapter, is supervising the program. Dixie Lee Smith and Kay Fowler are assisting her as certified teachers while their helpers include Mrs. Walter Esterline and daughter, Pat, Ireta Myers, Susan Loewy, Mrs. Willard Ausenheimer, Barbara Nickolson, Judy Radler, Gloria Norton and Nancy Baehr.

Assisting in the basket room at the pool will be Judy Christman, Nancy Aldrich, Tom Holtshouse and Michael Moser.

Batters in AL Go on Year's Biggest Binge

By The Associated Press

If pitching is 75 per cent of baseball, as Connie Mack used to say, Sunday's American League fans should ask for their money back.

They saw only 25 per cent of the grand, national pastime.

No fewer than 156 hits producing 94 runs rattled off the offerings of 43 pitchers in a slam-bang six-game program that finally ended under the lights at Chicago's Comiskey Park.

35 Runs Scored

There were 35 runs and 54 hits in Chicago, where the White Sox went 11 innings (and three hours and 50 minutes) to nip Washington 12-11 after the Senators had won the opener 12-0.

There were 24 runs and 40 hits at Cleveland, where "weak-hitting" Baltimore swept a double-header 11-6 and 5-2.

Two single games were no less productive. Kansas City rapping 15 hits to New York's 11 in the A's 12-6 victory at Kansas City, and Boston collecting 14 safeties and Detroit 12 in a 10-7 Red Sox triumph over the Tigers at Detroit.

It averaged out to 15 runs, 26 hits and 7 battered pitchers per game.

Yankees' Lead Cut

Kansas City cut the Yankee lead to 8½ games as Dick Tomanek won over Art Ditmar.

Boston's Frank Sullivan won his fifth against two defeats and the Tigers' Bill Fischer lost for a 3-4 record.

The Senators' Pete Ramos coasted to a five-hit shutout, his second, in the opener while Ray Moore, beaten starter in the opener, came back and won the nightcap with three hitless relief innings.

Anti-Pornography Group Appoints Murphy To Board

Dr. Daniel Murphy of 666 Virginia Ave. was named to the executive committee of a statewide organization formed Saturday in Ashland to combat the sale of indecent newsstand literature.

Chairman of the group is Charles J. Keating Jr., a Cincinnati attorney who spoke at the organization meeting. Some 50 representatives of local anti-pornography groups in 12 cities attended the meeting, Dr. Murphy said. The group adopted the name "Citizens for Decent Literature," he said.

The group made tentative plans for a convention in Cleveland in October.

Other officers of the group are Dr. Millard Jordan of Cleveland, vice chairman; Linden Sahlfeld of Cincinnati, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Donald Brown of Columbus, recording secretary; Harry Walters of Dayton, treasurer, and Stephen Burns of Cincinnati, legal counsel.

Dr. Murphy also is active in a local organization which has been working on the problem of indecent literature in Marion.

Don't laugh — 25 years from now, some silver-haired couple will be requesting "Purple People Eater" for their anniversary waltz.

New York Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP)—Industrials made moderate gains and some selected issues were higher in an uneven stock market early this afternoon.

Advances of fractions to around a point were the general rule. Rails were irregularly lower.

The market was mixed at the start but selected issues among lower-priced, specially situated stocks resumed their gains of last week.

American Motors went to the fore on an opening block of 20,000 shares and kept a 1-point gain in brisk dealings.

Steels picked up some strength as the session wore on. Aircrafts and electronics also did well.

Increased awarding of defense contracts and news that construction awards in May were the highest for any month in history helped boost market sentiment.

Quartet in Kenton Is Jailed and Fined

KENTON — Four Kenton men were sentenced to terms in the Hardin County Jail and given stiff fines when they appeared before Municipal Court Judge Herman D. Lease here this morning.

The four, Don Brown, 18, Harland Liechty, 19, Robert Shirk, 21, and Melvin Keen, 27, all of Kenton, were charged with entering farm property for the purpose of theft, namely 15 gallons of gasoline. The charges had been filed by Carroll Campbell of near Kenton and arrest had been made Saturday by the sheriff's office.

Judge Lease sentenced each of the men to six months in the county jail and fined them $500 and costs each. Court officials said this was the third appearance in court this year for Shirk.

In another case this morning Roy Meade, 23, of Kenton was sentenced to six months in the county jail and fined $150 and costs on a charge of attempted breaking and entering. City police, who filed the charge, said Meade had broken a window at the B. and O. Service Station here and was caught looking into the window.

The third case handled by Judge Lease this morning resulted in a fine of $25 and costs levied against Roger Jollif, 18, of Mount Victory on a reckless driving charge filed by the Mount Victory marshal.
